NSS Day Celebrations(23-09-2023)

The NSS unit of GDC, Nandikotkur, grandly celebrated NSS Day in the seminar hall on 23/09/2023 instead of 24/09/2023 due to it falling on a Sunday. Dr. S. Thajoddin, the incharge principal of our college, presided over the program, and Sri K. Khaja Hussain, the NSS program officer, served as the Convener. The other dignitaries on the dais were Dr. M. Anwar Hussain, cultural coordinator, Dr. R. Raghupathi Reddy, an academic coordinator, and Sri P. Amarnath Reddy, former NSS officer of our college.

Speaking on the occasion, Dr. Thajoddin stated that NSS develops qualities of social service, patience, kindness, and leadership among students. The NSS program officer, Sri K. Khaja Hussain, mentioned that NSS volunteers actively engage in social service and conduct programs to educate rural and uneducated people, encouraging them to send their children to schools and colleges. They also aim to educate them about the consequences of child labor. Dr. M. Anwar Hussain elaborated on the introduction and importance of NSS to the students. He explained that the NSS symbol, an 8-spoked wheel, represents its continuous work 24 hours a day, and the red color symbolizes the young blood of NSS volunteers. He also emphasized the excellent job opportunities available in the government for those with an NSS certificate. Dr. R. Raghupathi Reddy and Sri C. Bhasker also shared their valuable insights with the gathering. The program was attended by all teaching staff and students of our college.

Finally, students received packets of biscuits from the NSS unit, and the program concluded with the National Anthem.
